

Little House in the Big Woods – Cookie Sharing Problem

When Laura and Mary got a cookie during their visits with a neighbor, each of them ate half their cookie and saved their other half for Baby Carrie. But this means Baby Carrie, who was smaller, got an entire cookie while the older sisters only got half.

How would you share the two cookies so it was fair?

